Learn Communicative English

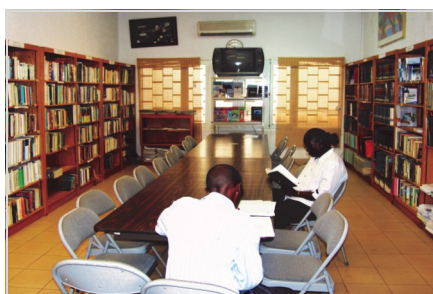

The Martin Luther King Center has been providing English language courses since 1987. Courses are organized into 10 week sessions, year round on a quarterly basis for all levels, including Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced.

Currently we offer three beginner, three intermediate low, three intermediate high, and three advanced level classes. Prior to registration, students take a placement exam in order to determine their current level.

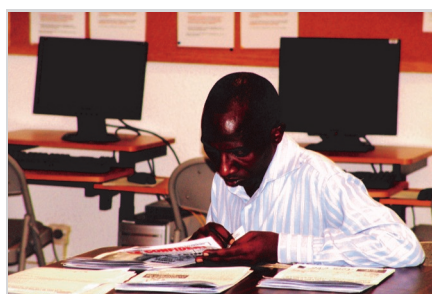

Classes meet twice a week with sessions typically beginning in January, April, July, and September. Business English courses are also available for managers of private companies and senior government officials.

Students also have free access to all of the MLK Facilities, including:

- Free Internet Access at three computer terminals
- Access to the MLK Library with books in French and English, weekly magazines, and daily newspapers
- Access to the audio visual room where American TV is broadcast

MLK Library

Computer Workstations

Video Room

All students receive a Certificate of Completion upon successfully passing a final exam.

Instructors:

Dieudonne Ongtiga
Rabby Anguida
N'Do Honore
Philippe Adoum

MLK instructors are trained in the U.S. or hold a masters degree in the English language.
